

TELEVISION / OTT

Netflix moves into Gaming

Source: Broadband TV News

Netflix has made a decisive move into the gaming sector by appointing the former Facebook VP Mike Verdu its VP of game development. In his new role, Verdu will report to Netflix's COO Greg Peters. [read more].

REGULATION

EU Roaming Regulation Review: Parliament Committee votes in favour of expanding Transparency Requirements

Source: Cullen International

Roaming providers must provide more specific information to customers roaming in the EU, including on quality of service (QoS) and additional costs when using value-added services. [read more – subscription required].

CONSUMER

Consumer Survey into Telecom Market 2021: Information about Prices and Conditions is easier to understand

Source: ACM

The annual consumer survey into the telecom market, which the Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets (ACM) commissions each year, has revealed that consumers find information about mobile plans easier to understand than they did in previous years. [read more].

COMPETITION

ACM has carried out Study into Digital Infrastructure Market: The Netherlands is still connected well

Source: ACM

The Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets (ACM) has carried out a study into the market for IP interconnections, which is a market that is essential to the proper functioning of the Internet. [read more].

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY IN TELECOM AND POSTAL SECTORS

ERGP Workshop highlights impact of Green Deal and 2022 Work Programme

Source: Cullen International

Postal regulators will explore how they should reflect the environmental goals of the EU Green Deal, while also continuing with detailed analysis of developing sectoral issues. [read more – subscription required].

SPECTRUM

Brussels increasingly concerned over 5G Spectrum Release

Source: Policy Tracker

The director of connectivity at the European Commission's DG Connect unit thinks there are areas of concern that require "attention and action" in the EU, including the assignment of 5G pioneer bands. [read more – subscription required].

POST

ERGP recommends Improvements to the Protection of the Rights of Postal Consumers

Source: Cullen International

ERGP has suggested eight areas where consumer protection for postal users could be strengthened in the forthcoming review of the European regulatory and legislative framework, including the Postal Services Directive. [read more – subscription required].