

REGULATION

The Italian Regulator Fines Wind Tre over €1m for Unfair Unilateral Contractual Changes

Source: Cullen International

The Italian telecoms regulator, AGCOM, fined Wind Tre €1.04m for various unlawful practices related to unilateral contractual changes. [read more – subscription required].

EU “Digital Decade” Consultation Responses suggest Broad Support for coordination and harmonisation

Source: Policy Tracker

The responses to the European Commission's consultation on the review of its "digital decade" policy framework suggest there is general support for enhanced EU coordination on spectrum authorisation but clear disagreements remain over 5G verticals. [read more – subscription required].

DMA/DSA

EU Parliament’s Key Committee adopts Digital Markets Act

Source: Euractiv

The Digital Markets Act legislative proposal has been endorsed with an overwhelming majority by a key European Parliament committee and will now be voted on in the December plenary session. [read more].

SPECTRUM

European SMEs and Wi-Fi advocates demand access to entire 6 GHz band

Source: Policy Tracker

A European alliance for small and medium enterprises (SMEs) has urged EU authorities to open the full 6 GHz band for unlicensed use to ensure Europe does not lag behind the Americas. [read more – subscription required].

ECS’S/POST ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Green 5G Networks and the Future of Sustainable Telecoms

Source: Total Telecom

In a virtual panel session hosted by the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), Huawei's VP of Wireless Marketing, Daisy Zhu, said that building energy efficient, green 5G networks will be key to facilitating wider sustainability across society. [read more].

Vodafone combining Solar and Wind for Self-Powered Mobile Masts

Source: Total Telecom

The implementation of this technology could drastically reduce the operator's energy consumption, helping to contribute to the company's net-zero carbon emissions target of 2027. [read more].