

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORKS & SERVICES

Ofcom: 30% Internet Users don't question Misinformation

Source: Advanced Television

More than a third of UK internet users are unaware that online content might be false or biased, according to research from media regulator Ofcom. [read more].

COVID hits Funding of Public Service Broadcasting

Source: Broadband TV News

Funding received by public service broadcasters covered by the EBU shrunk by 0.9% in 2020, representing a loss of €320 million. [read more].

Ofcom suspends KTV's Licence after serious Rule Breach

Source: Broadband TV News

Ofcom has suspended the broadcast licence of Khalsa Television Limited (KTV) after an investigation found the channel to be in breach of broadcasting rules. KTV broadcasts to the UK's Sikh community. [read more].

Report: Broadband's growing Impact on Broadcast Industry

Source: Advanced Television

Findings in a report from media processing and delivery technology specialist Appear reveal that broadband will take a centre stage in the broadcast industry in 2022, enabled by a renewed focus on content contribution, streaming codecs, and processing. [read more].

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

More could be done to reduce the Environmental Impact of e- Commerce Deliveries

Source: Cullen International

Further steps could be taken to reduce the environmental impact of e-commerce delivery. While the delivery sector is on course to improve significantly its environmental performance, mainly from the electrification of delivery vehicles, it could do more in the future. [read more – subscription required].

BP to offer delivery options to existing customers

Source: Post & Parcel

BP and Uber Technologies, Inc. are announcing a new global strategic convenience delivery partnership, extending their existing local arrangements to reach more consumers across the world. [read more].