INTERNATIONAL NEWS

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

5G Satellite Connectivity Pilot

LEO satellite broadband company OneWeb has teamed up with the 5G Innovation Centre at the University of Surrey (5GIC) and CGI, one of the largest IT and business services firms in the world, to test the integration of satellite communications and mobile 5G networks. Advanced Television (read more)

Report warns of full 5G Rollout Investment Gap

The UK is at risk of failing to reap the full benefits of 5G according to a report published by the Digital Connectivity Forum, the leading advisory body to UK Government on connectivity. Advanced Television (read more)

European Commission close to finalizing the Review of the Access Recommendations and Broadband Cost Reduction Directive

The forthcoming update of the access recommendations would reward investments in very high capacity networks (VHCN). Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

New EU Cybersecurity Rules ensure more Secure Hardware and Software Products

The Commission presented a proposal for a new Cyber Resilience Act to protect consumers and businesses from products with inadequate security features. European Commission (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

IPC: Postal Operators "Keep on their Promises" to address Carbon Footprint

Eighteen posts worldwide serving close to 330 million households, celebrate the Green Postal Day and invite other industries to adopt a sector approach to address climate change. Post & Parcel (read more)

Green Postal Day: Posts Worldwide respond to Consumer Demand for more Sustainable Delivery

Posts reiterate their commitment to contribute to a more sustainable economy and society, in line with the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Directly responding to consumer demand for low carbon delivery, posts pursue their joint efforts to reduce their carbon footprint. International Post Corporation (read more)