

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

Deutsche Telekom seals major Fibre Deal with Housing Industry

Millions of tenants in Germany are to receive a fibre connection more quickly: With this goal in mind, the umbrella organisation of the housing industry GdW and Deutsche Telekom have agreed on joint positions on fibre network deployment. Broadband TV News (read more)

Commission opens Calls worth €107 million to strengthen Europe's Cybersecurity

The Commission has launched an invitation to companies, public administrations and other organisations to submit proposals aimed to boost the EU's resilience against cyber threats and its capacity to protect, detect, defend, and deter cyber-attacks, as well as enhance cooperation among Member States. European Commission (read more)

Telecom Operators in EU and Republic of Moldova agree on lowering Roaming Tariffs from 1st January 2024

The Commission welcomes the Joint Declaration from EU and Moldovan telecom operators for lower roaming charges. European Commission (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

DMA: Commission launches a Consultation on the Template for Compliance Report

On 6th June 2023, the European Commission launched a consultation on a draft template for the compliance report that gatekeepers will have to submit under the Digital Markets Act (DMA). European Commission (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

UPU and IPC join forces to “Strengthen Postal Network”

Universal Postal Union and International Post Corporation signed a new cooperation agreement, intended to bring their current collaboration to new heights. This new agreement will run until December 2025. Post & Parcel (read more)

Ofcom to investigate Royal Mail's Quality of Service Performance

Ofcom, the UK postal regulator, has opened an investigation into the quality of service performance of Royal Mail during the financial year 2022/2023. Cullen International (read more)