

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

European Commission to propose Telecoms Act before the End of its Mandate

Renate Nikolay, deputy director-general of DG Connect at the European Commission, stated that a forthcoming Telecoms Act would “design the future of connectivity in Europe”. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

Platform-to-business Regulation insufficiently complied with and enforced, European Commission says

The European Commission published on 12th September 2023, its first report on the implementation of the regulation promoting fairness and transparency for business users of online intermediation services. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

EU's Top Court holds that Courier Operators can be Required to Contribute to the Funding of National Regulators

The Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) has held that express courier operators, which are not universal service providers (USPs), can be required to contribute to the operational costs of regulating the universal service. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)