

REGULATION

European Commission consults on the Procedural Aspects of Market Analysis Notifications

Source: Cullen International

The European Commission wants to clarify the way NRAs should notify draft market analysis decisions under the European Electronic Communications Code. To this end, it will update the current procedural recommendation of October 2008 [read more – subscription required].

COMPETITION

Belgian Competition Authority Imposes Interim Measures on Proximus and Orange

Source: Broadband TV News

The Belgian Competition Authority has imposed interim measures on the new joint venture between Proximus and Orange Belgium [read more].

INTERNET

Ofcom outlines Fibre Broadband Proposals

Source: Broadband TV news

Ofcom has proposed new and flexible regulation that will help build a full-fibre future for the whole of the UK [read more].

SPECTRUM

New Analysis shows C-band Spectrum is Most Expensive in Italy

Source: Total Telecom

Of the 23 countries identified by the study as having allocated 5G spectrum, Italy's is the most expensive at $0.424 per MHz per person [read more].

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

Telekom Deutschland/EWE Group FTTH/B Joint Venture 2019 (Merger Control)

Source: Cullen International

The German national competition authority (NCA), Bundeskartellamt, cleared the creation by Telekom Deutschland and EWE Group of a joint venture (JV) for the construction and operation of a fibre-to-the building/home (FTTB/H) network in north-west Germany [read more – subscription required].

CONSUMER

Dutch Regulator fines Mobile Operators for Unclear Consumer Information on their Website

Source: Cullen International

KPN, Tele2, T-Mobile and Vodafone must pay fines amounting to over €13m for providing incomplete and incorrect information to consumers about offers on their websites [read more– subscription required].

TV

More OTT Content to go Direct to Consumer

Source: Broadband TV News

The number of companies that choose to by-pass the traditional pay-TV operator and instead market their services direct to the consumer are expected to dramatically increase in 2020, a new report claims [read more].