

REGULATION

BEREC partly agrees with Commission's serious doubt on remedies in the leased lines market in Hungary

Source: Cullen International

BEREC partly agreed with the European Commission's serious doubt about the under-recovery of costs and the inclusion of a size premium in the weighted average cost of capital (WACC) calculation formula in the wholesale high-quality fixed access market (market 4/2014) in Hungary [read more – subscription required].

SPECTRUM

RSPG: Our 5G work is done

Source: Policy Tracker

Jonas Wessel, chair of the EU advisory RSPG told a recent conference in Paris that the group's work on 5G is completed and that it is now up to stakeholders and investors to make the most of the technology [read more – subscription required].

INTERNET

Carriers must be ready for the impact of blockchain

Source: Total Telecom

Blockchain technology will be among the key disruptive trends, emerging in the global enterprise telecoms sector, according to industry experts [read more].

UK allocates £200m to boost rural fibre rollout

Source: Total Telecom

The UK government is to allocate a further £200 million to boost rural connectivity across the UK. The government has made rural connectivity a key part of its telecoms manifesto this term and has repeatedly pledged to improve connectivity in some of Britain's most hard to reach areas [read more].

Vodafone: Gigabit connectivity is crucial for the evolution of our digital economy

Source: Total Telecom

Fibre to the Home (FTTH) and 5G mobile connectivity will be vital tools in cultivating a truly global digital economy, according to Vodafone Qatar's CTO, Ramy Boctor [read more].