

CONNECTIVITY TECHNOLOGY

Data Forecasts indicate 4G is far from Dead and Buried

Source: Telecoms.com

With 5G euphoria reaching fever pitch at times, the on-going importance of 4G networks is often overlooked. [\[read more\]](#).

REGULATION

BEREC consults on Symmetric Access and Co-Investment, publishes Guidelines on Public Warning Systems and Net Neutrality

Source: Cullen International

BEREC proposed guidelines implementing key provisions of the European Electronic Communications Code [\[read more – subscription required\]](#).

Draft BEREC Guidelines propose Broad Criteria for NRAs to implement Symmetric Access Obligations

Source: Cullen International

BEREC has drafted guidelines for NRAs on how to implement symmetric access obligations. These may apply to all network operators rather than only to operators with significant market power (SMP). [\[read more – subscription required\]](#).

BROADBAND

National Utilities Infrastructure could hold the key to the UK's Gigabit Future

Source: Total Telecom

Regulations could soon be changed to allow operators access to the millions of kilometres of underground utility networks [\[read more\]](#).

France: Fibre drives Record Telecoms Investment

Source: Advanced Television

France's telecoms regulator Arcep's annual status report on the French telecoms market shows that in 2019, operators in France invested €500 million more than in 2018, for an overall total (excluding spending on frequencies) of €10.4 billion. [\[read more\]](#).

GREEN CREDENTIALS

All Sky Originals now Carbon Neutral in UK

Source: Advanced Television

Sky has published its annual social and environmental impact report highlighting the progress it has made in 2019 and setting out its 'Bigger Picture' ambitions for 2020 and beyond. [\[read more\]](#).

POST

Australia Post: In April Alone We Saw Over 200,000 New Online Shoppers Enter the Market

Source: Post & Parcel

Australia Post has released the 2020 Inside Australian Online Shopping Report, which provides insight into the impact the pandemic has had on the industry so far, as well as a look back at the key trends that emerged in 2019. [read more].