

REGULATION

Council rejects European Commission's Connected Car Plans proposing Wi-Fi over Cellular for Short-Range Communications

Source: Cullen International

On 8 July 2019, a majority of EU member states rejected the delegated regulation proposed by the European Commission under the Intelligent Transport Systems Directive [read more – subscription required].

5G

Verticals need to be more involved if they are to influence 5G Standards

Source: Policy Tracker

5G promises to unlock growth across a wide range of business verticals, but newly emergent sectors are struggling to influence standards and that could hamper their development [read more – subscription required].

INNOVATION

Cybersecurity is becoming impossible without AI – Capgemini Report

Source: Telecoms.com

Security is certainly a topic which is top of the agenda for almost everyone in the technology world, but it is quickly becoming apparent it will be impossible without AI, according to Telecom news [read more].