

REGULATION

German Expert Report suggests adapting EU Competition Law to the Digital Economy and regulating Platforms

Source: Cullen International

The German Commission of Experts on Competition Law 4.0 presented 22 recommendations “for the further development of EU competition law in the light of the digital economy”, ranging from regulating dominant platforms ex ante to the creation of new institutions to coordinate digital policy [read more – subscription required].

SPECTRUM

ITU Meeting Exposes Disagreements over 26 GHz Band

Source: Policy Tracker

Last month’s ITU inter-regional workshop highlighted just how divided member states are when it comes to identifying 5G bands, in particular the 26 GHz band [read more – subscription required].

INTERNET

CityFibre to open up its Dark Fibre to UK Competitors

Source: Total Telecom

UK full fibre network specialists, CityFibre, has confirmed that it will make its dark fibre assets available to its competitors, as it looks to build out its networks in 26 UK towns and cities. [read more].

ECOMMERCE

EU Payment Services Directive Security Requirements enter into Application

Source: Cullen International

The revised Payment Services Directive (PSD2) sets EU rules on electronic payments and entered into force on 13 January 2018 [read more – subscription required].

POST

PostNord postpones its Plans for Every-Other-Day Delivery

Source: Cullen International

PostNord, the Swedish USP postponed its plans to deliver postal items only every other day. The change was a reaction to high levels of criticism and opposition [read more – subscription required].