

REGULATION

Openreach pushes for £30bn Copper Switch-Off by 2027

Source: Total Telecom

The UK's incumbent fixed line broadband provider, Openreach, is in talks with the government to formalise an official timetable for the switch off of its copper-based network, according to reports in the press [\[read more\]](#).

SPECTRUM

Telecoms Sector is slowly starting to address Climate Change

Source: Policy Tracker

While big telecoms players seem committed to reducing their carbon footprint, the sector's energy bill is only set to increase as demand for and consumption of mobile data keeps growing [\[read more – subscription required\]](#).

Switzerland Confirms FM Switch-Off Date

Source: Radio World

Bernard Maissen, deputy director for the Federal Office of Communications, has announced that Switzerland's radio programs "will only be available on the FM Band until the end of 2024 at the latest." [\[read more\]](#).

INTERNET

UK Fibre Penetration reaches 2.5 Million Homes

Source: Total Telecom

The UK's FTTH deployment continues to gather pace, with analysts speculating that penetration levels could hit 10 per cent by the end of the year [\[read more\]](#).

CONSUMER

Ofcom launches Campaign to encourage Switching

Source: Ofcom

On 16th September, Ofcom launched a campaign to explain that it's never been simpler to switch your mobile or broadband deal [\[read more\]](#).

POST

Isle of Man reduces its Mail Delivery Service

Source: Post & Parcel

Isle of Man Post Office (IOMPO) has announced that it is reducing its standard letter mail service from six to five days a week, Monday to Friday, from 21st October, in response to declining customer demand [\[read more\]](#).