

REGULATION

London Authority moves to simplify Siting Policies for Mobile Infrastructure

Source: Policy Tracker

London has unveiled new guidance for commercial landlords, public property owners and mobile operators on deploying base stations [read more – subscription required].

Source: European Commission

On 9 October, Member States, with the support of the European Commission and the European Agency for Cybersecurity, published a high-level report on the coordinated risk assessment of 5G networks [read more].

5G and IoT Conference Discusses Future Policy Challenges for Connected Mobility

Source: Cullen International

The debate continues on which is the best communication technology to use for connected cars, with advocates for ITS-G5 and for C-V2X. At the same time, new forms of connected mobility are raising a set of different policy challenges for municipalities, concerned to safeguard road and pedestrian safety [read more – subscription required].

MARKET OPERATIONS

ACM to Withdraw Unused Mobile Numbers

Source: ACM

Numbers that are not in use in Netherlands within a year after they were assigned, have to be returned to ACM (Netherlands Authority) [read more].

TELEVISION

Portugal DTT Frequency Migration in January

Source: Advanced Television

Portugal's National Communications Authority (Anacom) has approved the new frequency migration plan for DTT broadcasts to mainland Portugal and the islands of the Azores and Madeira [read more].

SPECTRUM

GSMA Reiterates Concerns over High Spectrum Prices

Source: Policy Tracker

Ahead of WRC-19, mobile industry association the GSMA has again warned that high spectrum prices are bad news for consumers in both developing and developed markets [read more – subscription required].

CONSUMERS

5G EU-Wide Coordinated Risk Assessment of 5G Networks Security

Ofcom's Draft Guidelines to Ensure the Fair Treatment of Vulnerable Customers

Source: Cullen International

Ofcom, is consulting until 20 November on a guide for providers of electronic communications services on the fair treatment of vulnerable customers [read more – subscription required].

on reforms to the international remuneration system (terminal dues), in particular allowing countries to set self-declared rates [read more – subscription required].

POST

UPU Congress Agrees Reform of Terminal Dues; USA to Remain in UPU

Source: Cullen International

On 25 September, the third Extraordinary Congress of the Universal Postal Union (UPU) reached unanimous agreement

Global Shipping Volume to Reach 200 Billion Parcels by 2025

Source: Post & Parcel

Global parcel volume reached 87 billion in 2018, up from 74 billion parcels in 2017 Pitney Bowes Parcel Shipping Index has revealed [read more].