

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

Commission requests Input from Stakeholders on the Use of Spectrum Bands for Mobile Satellite Systems

The Commission has launched a targeted consultation to gather feedback in view of the European Union's decision on the future use of the 1980-2010 MHz and 2170-2200 MHz frequency bands for Mobile Satellite Services. European Commission (read more)

Commission seeks Feedback on a Draft Methodology for the Mapping of the Quality of Service of 5G in Europe

The Commission launched a public consultation on a new methodology to calculate the quality of service of 5G connectivity. European Commission (read more)

EXCLUSIVE: Commission reassures the Council over Telecom Rules Overhaul

The European Commission may not propose rules overhaul as ambitious as previously suggested for its planned EU's telecommunications review. Euractiv (read more)

Project aims to allow Operators 'to move beyond Fixed Pricing'

The full title of the project is "Infinity: Unlocking revenue with APIs & dynamic pricing", and it is about introducing a dynamic pricing solution for telcos, apparently. Telecoms.com (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

The European Board for Digital Services launches a coordinated Action to reinforce the Protection of Minors as regards Pornographic Platforms

The European Board for Digital Services shares the European Commission's concerns about certain platforms which make pornographic content unlawfully accessible to minors across the EU against Union or national legislation. European Commission (read more)

Commission opens Investigations to safeguard Minors from Pornographic Content under the Digital Services Act

The DSA aims to ensure a safer environment online for minors, in this context, the Commission has opened formal proceedings against Pornhub, Stripchat, XNXX, and XVideos for suspected breaches of the Digital Services Act (DSA). European Commission (read more)