

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Week 23 June 2025

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

Commission gathers Feedback on the upcoming Digital Networks Act

The Commission is seeking views on how to tackle barriers for cross-border business operations, boost innovation and increase investment in the European electronic communications sector. European Commission (read more)

EU takes a step further in Cybersecurity Crisis Management

EU Member States adopted the Commission's proposal on the EU blueprint for cybersecurity crisis management ('Cyber Blueprint') to reinforce our Union's resilience against growing cyber threats. European Commission (read more)

Ofcom Fleshes Out its Approach to AI

Ofcom highlights the ways in which AI is currently being used by various sectors in a way that has the potential to drive 'better outcomes.' Telecoms.com (read more)

Spain: Telefónica will not offer Traditional Terminating Leased Lines from April 2026

From 30 April 2026, Telefónica will only offer Ethernet terminating leased lines. The Spanish regulator, CNMC, withdrew Telefónica's obligation to offer traditional terminating leased lines. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

Commission launches Public Consultation on High-Risk AI Systems

The Commission has launched a public consultation to gather input on implementing the AI Act's rules on high-risk AI systems. European Commission (read more)

The EU sets out its International Digital Strategy

The European Commission and the High Representative set out a joint vision for the EU's external action for digital. European Commission (read more)