

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

BEREC consults on Guidelines to ensure Coherent Application of the Gigabit Infrastructure Act

BEREC adopted two sets of draft guidelines setting out its recommendations for industry and public bodies on the application of the Gigabit Infrastructure Act. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Digital Networks Act (DNA) to focus on General Authorisation and Spectrum as “Root Causes” of Market Fragmentation

The Digital Networks Act (DNA) could merge the existing rules on telecoms, net neutrality and governance into a single, directly binding regulation. The European Commission launched a call for evidence on its latest thinking on the upcoming DNA proposal, expected in December 2025. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Incoming Danish Council Presidency Priorities are strengthening Digital Infrastructure's Resilience and reducing Regulatory Burdens

The EU regulatory framework for digital infrastructure should both foster innovation and promote competition to the benefit of the end users. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Finland to end Standard Definition Broadcasts

Finland's HD transition is entering a final phase with standard definition commercial TV channels ending broadcasts via terrestrial and cable on 30 June, 2025. Finland to end standard definition broadcasts. Broadband TV News (read more)

Fibre Dominant Reception Means in Portugal

The growth in pay-TV subscribers in Portugal, apparent since 2006 has been reversed, according to new data from the regulator Anacom. Broadband TV News (read more)

End of Newsletter**