

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Week 32 August 2025

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

German Telecommunications Act to be aligned with Gigabit Infrastructure Act

The Federal Ministry for Digital Transformation and Government Modernisation presented on 17th July 2025 key points for planned amendments to the Telecommunications Act (TKG). Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

UK announces new Public Spectrum Plan

The Department of Science, Innovation and Technology recently announced a new plan to assess and potentially release spectrum for public use. Policy Tracker (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

The Netherlands - PostNL: Minister's Proposal for Universal Service Obligation (USO) insufficient for Future- Proof Postal Service

PostNL has reported its Q2 2025 results revealing parcels revenue up 2.8%, with volume growth of 2.2%. Post & Parcel (read more)

UK - Your next Parcel could be delivered by a Robot DOG: Major UK Courier Service starts using Four-Legged Bots for Deliveries

It might not be able to fetch the paper for you, but a robot dog might soon bring you your parcels. Milo, the four legged delivery bot, has started taking to the streets of Yorkshire as part of a new trial for delivery firm Evri. Daily Mail (read more)

End of Newsletter**