

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

European Space Agency wants to locate Interference from Space

The ESA is exploring the possible uses of its CleanWaves space-monitoring initiative. It's a system that will trace radio interference affecting terrestrial and orbiting receivers from space. Policy Tracker (read more – subscription required)

France explores D2D Options for MSS Licence Renewals

French regulator Arcep is consulting on allowing satellite direct-to-device (D2D) services in the L-band, where several mobile satellite service (MSS) licences are due to expire between 2027 and 2030. Policy Tracker (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

End of Newsletter

Omniva to Compete for Lithuania's Universal Postal Service Contract

Omniva's Lithuanian subsidiary, Omniva LT UAB, is entering the tender to become the country's next universal postal service operator. With this move, Omniva aims to strengthen its Baltic presence, challenge the market monopoly, and drive much-needed reforms to secure a sustainable future for postal services in the Baltic region. Omniva (read more)

CNMC criticises the 2025 Amendments to the Postal Law

The Spanish postal regulator, CNMC, published an opinion criticising the recent amendments to the postal law. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Austrian Post develops New System to calculate CO₂-Emissions per Parcel

To better track CO₂e emissions, Austrian Post has developed a new system to calculate and report specific emissions data during transport and sorting for each individual parcel in accordance with ISO 14083-1. IPC-News (read more)