

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

Swedish Regulator requests Blocking of Phones that will not support 112 Emergency calls after 2G and 3G switch-off

The Swedish telecoms regulator, PTS, has undertaken consumer protection measures to ensure uninterrupted access to 112 emergency calls after the upcoming shutdown of 2G and 3G networks. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

European Commission kicks off the Review of the Digital Decade Policy Programme

The EU will review its main digital strategy targets set out in the Digital Decade Policy Programme by mid-2026, considering technological and geopolitical changes and the Commission's push to simplify regulation. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Use of the Upper 6 GHz Band in the EU

The upper 6 GHz band (6425–7125 MHz) is currently subject to competing industry demands, namely for high-power licensed mobile use and for low-power unlicensed Wi-Fi use. Both technologies are standardised for the entire 6 GHz band (5925–7125 MHz). Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Proximus, Starlink to expand D2C Satellite Connectivity in Europe

BICS, a Proximus Global company, and Starlink have entered a strategic partnership, appointing BICS as the preferred IPX provider in Europe for Starlink's direct to-cell (D2C) satellite connectivity services. The collaboration enables Starlink to leverage the IPX network to connect mobile network operators (MNOs) today, while also paving the way for Starlink's next-generation network that will be capable of providing broadband service to smartphones. Advanced Television (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

Commission requests Shein to provide information on the sale of Illegal Products under the Digital Services Act

The Commission published a report assessing the Digital Services Act's (DSA) interaction with other EU laws and its designation process for very large online platforms and search engines. European Commission (European Commission)

End of Newsletter