

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

Europe nears Consensus on WRC-27's Unauthorised NGSO Services Topic

European countries and satellite operators have similar views on the WRC-27 agenda item that deals with new measures for unauthorised satellite terminals. A no-change position is likely. Policy Tracker (read more – subscription required)

Nokia and du show off some Autonomous Network Slicing

Nokia and du say they have implemented a 5G Advanced autonomous network slicing solution, promising “self-optimising 5G services for enterprises, industries, and consumers.”. Telecoms.com (read more)

Australia mulls AFC in part of the 6 GHz Band

Australian regulator ACMA is considering whether to introduce an automatic frequency coordination (AFC) system in the 5925–6585 MHz band. Policy Tracker (read more – subscription required)

how to ensure an age-appropriate use of Internet, so children can make responsible choices and enjoy the digital world. European Commission (European Commission)

***End of Newsletter*****

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

Commission accepts TikTok's Commitments on Advertising Transparency under the Digital Services Act

The European Commission has secured TikTok's commitment to provide advertising repositories that ensure full transparency around ads on its services, as required by the Digital Services Act (DSA). European Commission (European Commission)

Executive Vice-President Virkkunen opens Safer Internet Forum focusing on Age-appropriate Use of Internet

Executive Vice-President Henna Virkkunen will participate in the Safer Internet Forum to discuss